EMERGENCY MEETING OF UMUDA OKPUALA WELFARE
UNION AND REPRESENTATIVES OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT OFFICERS OF ABIA STATE

The town hall meeting commenced with an opening prayer said by Ugwudi Edith M. Nwakanma.

After which the president general briefed the villagers on the outcome of a meeting they were invited to at Okpara Auditorium which was organized by Abia state government.

We were lucky to have been selected as one of the few villages in ~~Umudhia~~ North to benefit ~~by the state government~~ in 2020 budget of Abia state.

The Community Development Officer in charge of our zone, Mrs. Cynthia Onyemachi said it was a continuity development program basically for Agriculture, Education, Commerce and Industry, Oil and Gas, and Infrastructure.

The Traditional prime minister, Chief Moses Nwakanma said the timing was short though which was why it was as if the Auditorium wasn't filled and that he would want to know whether they are representing the federal, state or N.G.O, Again that he would wish to know the maximum amount as to be disbursed.

Mrs. Onyemachi while responding said they are from the state government and would assist in areas as secondary school, primary school etc and that the date line is Friday.

Mr. Obinna Ndubueze the secretary general of the welfare union asked if we could be given at least a week to plan but they said the template should be returned tomorrow being Friday.

The TPM said Agriculture to him is the best we could get as it would benefit the village.

Mrs. Nwakanma suggested on getting an oil mill for the women.

Mazi fine Country Ehumadu said it was necessary we have something like road.

1. Oil mill for the women.
2. Completion of our village hall.
3. Landscaping/re roofing of the hall.

The meeting came to a closure by 5:50pm with a closing prayer
by Chief Moses Nwakanma
